

Agnes Claire Spies

August 11, 1934 - March 8, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved Agnes Spies, also known as 'Nana,' who left this world on March 8, 2025, at the age of 90. She was a pillar of strength, a source of endless love, and the foundation upon which our family was built. While our hearts ache in her absence, we find comfort in the countless memories she leaves behind.

Born on August 11, 1934, in Teaneck, NJ, Agnes dedicated her life to her family and those close to her. She was more than a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother - she was our greatest teacher and fiercest protector.

She is preceded in death by her loving husband, Richard Spies; her son, John Scott Drach; her daughter, Kathleen Smith; and her sisters, Lorraine Sbaldigi, Joan DeFelice, Grace LaGreca, and Audrey Rosatelli. She is survived by her daughters Karen Alexandropolous and her husband Athanasios, Jaclyn Brown and her husband Samuel, as well as her brother Joseph Titelius, who will continue to carry her love in their hearts. She is also survived by several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Although her passing brings heartbreak, it also reminds us of the importance of unconditional love, resilience, and the reminder that family is life's greatest gift. A service to celebrate her life will be held on Saturday, March 15, 2025, from 9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. at Martinez-Morse Funeral Home in Middletown, NY, followed by a burial at St. Anastasia Cemetery in Harriman, NY. Friends and family are invited to gather and celebrate the beautiful life she lived.

Though she is no longer with us, her love will always be with us. She leaves behind a family that is stronger because of her, and her love will always carry us forward, always. Rest peacefully Nana. We will always love you.
