“ She will be missed by those she got along with and those she didn't get along with will feel nothing when she passed, as karma came knocking on her door. I felt nothing then and still a year later I still feel nothing.

“ Anna, it's taken me almost a week to write this, you know me better late than never. You've always been my best friend and confidant. Now with both you and Ro gone I have no one to go to when my memories get muddled. Rose always made the best Italian antipasto & dressing and you always the stuffed shells and you both left without giving me the recipe. When you, Ro, Tootie and Dolly get together for "our" morning coffee, remember that I love you more than I could ever put into words. I miss you. CIAO, my "Baby Sister".

“ Hi Mom, I already told you how much you mean to me, and how proud I am to be your son. Anyone that knows you knows how much you love your family, whether far away or close to home, that is something I will always remember about you. Like any family, there is bickering and arguing and shouting and laughing and crying, but in the end, there is love, and that's what matters. I love you, Mom.

You fought long and hard these last five years. You are an inspiration to all that know you. It's time to rest now, so take a long, deep breath as you go home to be with Grandma and Grandpa.

You are the best. I love you.

“ Mom I have been your daughter-in-law for 36 years and a part of your family for 38 years, you always made me feel like I was your daughter and loved and you have no idea how much that meant to me. I will miss you more than you'll ever know and I will do my best to keep your boys in line, make sure that they're OK. I'll even smack them in the back of The head for you every now and then. I'll always love you my angel in heaven and butterfly on earth 🦋
