“ Today, at this hour, a memorial service is being held for my brother Art. Because of my doctor orders and advice, I am unable to attend but I'm with you Art. I am not able to say “goodbye” but will say “until we meet again” . I love you. You will always be in my heart and memories. You raised four wonderful children who honored you these last few weeks. Carol “thank you” for bringing Art home so that we would be able to say goodbye. The happiness he had these past 15 years were because he had you.

“ Art was a great friend and a true gentleman. We shared many moments together; however, chief among them was when we witnessed our beloved Yankees win the 1996 World Series. We stayed celebrating at the stadium until 2:00 AM. I am going to miss this wonderful friend. May God bless his wife Carol and all loving family members. See you again one day, Art. Your friend, Pete Schwarz

“ There are no words to express my feelings of the lost of my brother Art but many, many memories. We were blessed to be born as triplets taking our first breath together. He was a gentleman from the beginning as since ladies before gentleman I was born first. It took him an hour and a half to join me as my brother Carmen was born one hour later. Guess he wanted to make sure it was safe joining us. I am so proud to be his sister and both brothers treated me kindly, stuck up for me and there whenever needed. Art I wake up in the morning and say “good morning” and the last thing at night is to say “good night”. I will miss you forever. When you left you took part of my heart. Know though I love you always Till we meet again!
