“ We've been together since you were born. Grew up in adjacent apartment buildings in the South Bronx. You moved to Rockland and I stayed in the Bronx. We got together every now and again but never lost touch. We spent many, many happy occasions together, as well as many sad ones through the years. Your Dad, my Mom, my Dad, my brother, Butch, your Mom, my brother, Jimmy, and now you. Please give them a big hug from me and take one for yourself. I love you, Barbara, and will miss you until we meet again. Peggy
