

Christopher R. Martini

May 17, 1989 - December 17, 2023

We are heartbroken to share the devastating news of the passing of Christopher "Chris" Ray Martini. He was tragically taken from us on December 17, 2023, at the age of 34.

Chris is survived by his beautiful wife, Jennifer Martini; his loving mother, Anna Martini; his sister, Danielle Kaleita & husband, Paul, and two nieces, Isabella and Natalie; his mother and father-in-law, Valerie and Kenneth Halupka; brother-in-law Kenny Halupka; his aunt Maria Sarett; his uncle Dominic Sorresso & wife Mary; his uncle, Jeff Sarett; his aunt Jane Miller & husband, Jim; his cousins: Laura, Katie, Tricia, John, Robert, Brian, Frank, Eve & Frankie.

Chris was predeceased by his father, Dennis Martini; his maternal grandparents, Pasqua "Nonna" & Vito "Poppy" Sorresso; his paternal grandparents Irma, & Rinaldo Martini; and his cousin, Lisa Sarett.

Chris was born in Goshen, New York, on May 17, 1989. He attended Middletown schools and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business from Oneonta College. He worked as a medical biller at Garnet Health Hospital.

Chris cherished the true and loving relationship he had with Jenn over the last nine years. Nine years filled with love and silliness that everyone could see.

Together with their dog, Ollie, they enjoyed planning mini adventures by day, cuddling, and watching movies by night.

Chris formed deep friendships at an early age that continued throughout his life. He was so loved by all of his family, friends, and peers. He will be greatly missed.

A huge Tampa Bay Bucs fan, Chris was dedicated to his fantasy football team of 20 years, Blood and Tears, and took so much pride in being the "commish."

Chris was a happy and content person. He enjoyed the simple things in life and truly cherished the things that were most important. He had a gentle soul and a kind heart. Chris loved to laugh and will be remembered for his joking and sarcastic nature.

The family would like to thank everyone for their outpouring of love and support during this difficult time. We love you all.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Humane Society.
