

Colleen Naomi Furman

October 21, 1943 - October 8, 2022

Colleen Naomi Furman of Middletown, NY passed peacefully at home with family early morning October 8th, 2022. Many knew her from her 28 years of work as a CNA at St. Theresa's Nursing Home (now known as Highland Rehab). She provided the best care she could and left an impact on all who came in contact with her. She was also a member of church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Colleen is survived by her husband of 61 years, Marshall, their four children, Hope and Teddy Grey, Wendy and John Olver, Marshall and Michelle Furman, and Kenneth and Bryann Furman, as well as 15 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren. She took pride in holidays, decorating and as many family events as she could fit into a calendar year. Gardening was her peace and because of her hands in the yard she leaves behind a garden of patience, love, memories, lessons and of course beautiful flowers that still bloom annually. As Colleen took her turn over the water wheel, we feel her hands in the wind, her kisses in the rain drops, and her voice in the silence of early morning before the morning glories bloom. Please keep her family in your thoughts and celebrate a long life filled with love and peace.

Details have been entrusted to Martinez-Morse Funeral Home and services will take place Friday October 14, 2022, at 10:30 am, followed by burial at Orange County Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Goshen, NY. Repass will take place at the home of Marshall and Colleen after burial. Messages of condolences may be left at DeWittFH.com.
