“ Dan, you will be missed deeply! We were very close at one time! Always hanging out at your house, there when your children were born, going to music concerts and festivals, hotel parties, having house parties (halloween, birthday, new years, or days ending in "y"), we lived together, and we were even in each others weddings. And I'll never forget the time that it was snowing so hard, I just made it to Middletown from Forestburg to go to work at 5 in the morning and Jean called me freaking out. You never made it home that night and she woke up to an empty bed. So I left my job and back tracked the way I thought you would have went. It was freezing, a couple feet of snow on the ground, I finally found a snow shaped truck on the back road that went from my house to yours in Monticello. When I got the snow off the window to look inside and see if anyone was inside, you were curled up with a little blanket, shaking! The doors were stuck, finally got them open, and got you in my car, with the heat cranked up! I know you learned your lesson to always have gas in your truck, after that! You must have thanked me a million times in the 8 miles to your house! But that was the way our friendship was, we would do anything for each other. I wish it didn't change so much over the years. Dan, you will be in my heart forever! I love and miss you! But, I know you are watching from up above and you are Danny and Zoey's Guardian Angel now! Rest In Peace!!!
