“ Brother...I miss you! I LOVE YOU so much ! My heart hurts so bad knowing my only sibling, my brother, my friend and my protector is gone. I can't call you or see you or anything. I wear you on my neck every single day . I kiss your photo daily. It hurts me so bad that you're gone.. that morning I found out was the worst day in my life. The pain I felt still stays. The only thing I can do is talk out loud at times and pray you hear me and are watching over me... I'm almost 6 months pregnant, brother ! Finally you're gonna be an uncle. ❤️ ode'see will know you , his uncle. I'll tell him all about you! It hurts so bad that he won't physically know his uncle but emotionally and mentally he will know and love you . I think about you every single day. Not even a few minutes go by without you on my mind! I love you . Forever and always❤️❤️

“ Derrick...sorry it took me so long to write this...3 months has passed since you left...still to this day it breaks my heart knowing you aren't here anymore...I still remember the day I asked you to be my boyfriend on January 24th 2012...you was hesitant but then you said yes...I know we've had our ups and downs and we ended up breaking up but we were always there for each other...maybe not as much as we should have been but you know how my heart felt with you...not just with you but with you entire family...I am thankful to this day that they still considered me family and they love my kids as if they were their own...my heart breaks even more knowing that this is reality and you aren't ever coming back...we all wish you was here...like we would say and write to each other “iloveyouforeverandalways”with no spaces so no one what ever get in the way...until your in my dreams again just know iloveyou and miss you so much Odeee ❤️❤️

“ My son, my life, my everything! I brought you into this world with all the love a mother can give to her child. There were times you made me crazy, times you made me mad, but the best parts were when you made me laugh, your smile, and I love yous. I will hold you in my heart forever and when it’s my time I can’t wait to see you waiting there with your smile that lid up the room. I love you and miss you chew chew for always!!! Xoxo
