

Edwin D. Abreu

April 15, 1952 - May 15, 2025

Edwin was the beloved husband of Jacquelyn Abreu and the devoted father of four children: Zachariah Abreu (predeceased), Rachel Abreu, Gabriel Abreu, and Grace Abreu.

He is also survived by his mother, Romualda Santiago; his brother, Jesus Manuel Romero; and his sisters, Yolanda Nieves and Yasmin Nieves. He leaves behind many nieces and nephews who cherished his presence and guidance.

Edwin was predeceased by his son Zachariah Abreu, as well as his two brothers, Vidal Nieves Jr. and Carlos Abreu.

A man of many passions, Edwin practiced karate for over 60 years and found joy and peace in Plein Air painting. He often shared stories and reflections from his time serving in the United States Marine Corps, a chapter of his life he held with deep pride.

His love and compassion extended to animals, especially his beloved dogs. Edwin was known for offering a helping hand to anyone in need—quietly, sincerely, and without expectation.

He led a life filled with insightful wisdom and creative pursuits. A lifelong learner, Edwin had a deep appreciation for Philosophy, History, and the Humanities. He found joy in working on home projects with his children, always encouraging curiosity and thoughtful discussion.

To his family, Edwin will always be remembered as a man of strength, intelligence, and truth—a man of integrity, sound judgment, and unwavering love.
