

Emma Jane Grannis

December 16, 1936 - February 2, 2020

Emma Jane Grannis, 83, of Pine Bush, New York passed away peacefully on February 02, 2020. Emma Jane was born in Canebreak, West Virginia on December 16, 1936. She married Willis Henry "Bill" Grannis, January 30, 1960 in Las Vegas, Nevada. Jane was married to her husband Bill for 60 years. Together they lived in Palmdale, Cerritos and Villa Park CA where they raised their two sons. Jane worked Boys Markets as a clerk and later advanced to office manager. After retiring they moved to their dream house on Smith Mountain Lake in Mpneta Virginia. A few years ago they moved to Pine Bush to be near their son, Paul and his family. Jane loved gardening and cooking special meals for her family and friends. She loved sharing her knowledge of her plants. If you ever walked through one of her gardens you always went home with a cutting of something or a little pot of something she rooted. Jane is preceded in death by her mother and stepfather, Virginia and Frank McMahan, her brother Jim and sister Van. Jane is survived by her husband Bill Grannis, her two sons, John of Hacienda Heights, CA and Paul of Pine Bush, NY, their spouses Millie and Maggl. Her grandchildren, Ron, Michelle, China, Sera and Elissa. Great grandchildren, Ryan, Dylan, Ethen, Cooper, Lily, Sierra, Alex, Dylan, Julia and Cora. Great-great, grandchildren, Noah, Kaitlyn and Samantha. Memorial services are pending. Jane had said she wanted her ashes cast at the Peakes of Otter in the Blue Ridge mountains
