Mom was born in NY Jewish Hospital on April 7, 1929. Her parents, Max and Ruth Pinkus, were as proud as parents could be. A few years later, when baby brother Gilbert was born, their family was complete. Together, they lived in Brooklyn for many years. On a blind date, Mom met The love of her life, Edward. They were married in 1949. Eventually they moved to Queens. It was here they had all three of their wonderful sons: Steven, Fredrick, and Kenneth. In 1963, they moved their family to Long Island. Once the family was grown and out in the world, Mom and Dad moved to Utah where Rick and Ken had settled with their families.

After Dad died in 2001, Mom remained in Utah. She finally came home to New York in 2017 where she lived for the remainder of her life.

Although she lived a long and rewarding life, it's still hard to say goodbye to someone who was loved by so many. Mom leaves behind her three sons and their wives: Steve and Laurel, Rick and Susan, and Ken and Maryjane. Her six amazing grandchildren and their husbands, wives and partners will surely miss her as will her 12 great grandchildren.

Burial will be in Utah allowing Mom and Dad to be together again forever.

“ I am deeply saddened to learn of Fran Fisch passing. We were roommate at the rehabilitation center. I called her to find out if she was safe with this coronavirus, but her line was disconnected. I looked her up in the Internet only to learn that she had passed. I wished I could have attended her funeral. I will truly miss her.
