I am so sorry to hear such sad news. Frank was good friends to both my son Will and Hector. He was like a son to me. Kind, loving, big heart, smart and a such great person. God Bless you Frank and your mom and family too.

I had a friend before in the Bronx during the mid-70s. He was 27 yrs old at that time. I lost contact with him because I moved several times to different places in NYC.

“ Miss you Frank. I will continue to pray for you. You were generous and always looked out for your peers and friends. Last time I saw you, you had a smile on your face after that joked we shared together a week before you "crossed over". We never got to play hoops. I wish we did. In the next life, I'll show you my jump shot. Look out after your peers from above. Miss you brother. Vince V.
