“ So very sorry to hear of Franks passing. My mother-in-law Pat, and Frank became very good friends at the nursing home (Elant at the time) and he made her stay there so much more enjoyable. After her passing, I stopped to visit Frank; such a sweet man. Our deepest sympathy.

“ Frank was my neighbor for most of my life until he moved to adult care. Since I was a child I looked over at his porch to see him smiling and waiving..... we forever had a kind word or “gesture” for each other well into my adulthood, although I haven’t seen him in awhile I sure do miss him. I have great memories of Frank that will last forever. Here’s all 10 to you buddy.....toes too! Love ya. JMR
