“ My condolences to the Family of Gary Scott. In January of 1973 I left Manhattan NY for Ft Jackson SC with a Gary Scott from Middletown NY. We went through basic training together. We lost contact after that. There were 5 of us from New York that were sent down there together. We called ourselves the Jackson 5. I have a Charlie Company yearbook from the time we served together. I would like to pass it on to Gary's family. I live in Port Jervis and can be reached at CELLEXBSI@GMAIL.COM Again my condolences to Gary's family.

Dale and family, please know that we intended to join you, but my bad memory got in the way and we showed up a day late. Wishing you the best, Barry Hawkins

“ I just found out what happened, my very deepest of condolences to Gary's family. He was a great neighbor, insightful to talk with, he cared about his family's wellbeing and safety. I will miss seeing him plowing that snow. He now rests with Jesus. Rey #87
