

Mr. George Burrow

April 15, 1939 - July 19, 2017

George Burrow passed away peacefully at Orange Regional Medical Center. He was surrounded by his loving family on July 19th 2017. George was born in Queens N.Y. on April 15th 1939 to George and Rose Burrow.

He married the love of his life Rose Marie Burrow on September 23, 1961. They were married for 51 amazing years until Rose passed away unexpectedly in 2012.

George served in the U.S. Army Core of Engineer's from 1956 through 1964, after he began a Career in the New York City Dept. of Corrections where he retired after 20 years.

George's greatest joys came from late nights with his three grandson's and being their number one fan at all of their sporting events.

“ Words seem inadequate to explain the loss I feel for someone Ive always thought of as a "Marlboro Man"As far back as I can remember he was always there-with a smile (or sometimes a growl depending on the subject!)ready to listen,try to advise or lend a helping hand.Uncle was strong and reliable as well as kind and compassionate with those he loved.We were all truly blessed to have him in our family showing us what FAMILY truly means.I will miss him terribly as I do Auntie Em but know they are finally together again. Love till we meet again,Anna

“ I am beyond saddened at the passing of my Godfather, my Uncle George. Such a warm, compassionate, gentle being who was bigger than life, a superhero to me. Always willing to lend a hand, & he was always there over the years through some rough times. I will miss him dearly, as I do Auntie Em. I know they are resting peacefully together once again. Sleep with the Angels..until we all meet again..love & miss you both

“ My heart is very sad with the passing of Uncle. He was truly a special man and I will miss him. The many times he drove me back and forth to his house when I was a kid shows how wonderful he was. I was a real pain in the butt in the car! Rest now Uncle with Aunt Roe, until we meet again. Love you! Roe 🥰
