“ Danny and I shared a very close relationship from the time he was born. He now is in the embrace of our Mother, Father, and Sister Linda. I feel a bit lost because I am the last one still here. Danny and I were the closest in our Spiritual Journey. We shared our Visions and Our search from the time we were very little until we had our next to final conversation. Hospice sent a Priest to his home and he received our Lord in Holy Communion. This, I believe prepared him for his final journey. The Evening of Your Passing a Giant Rainbow covered the Colorado Sky. Please say hello to Mnsgr. William Bradley, Cardinal O'Connor, and Of Course Fr. Mike and Fr. Larry! Little Jodi is waiting to give you a Flower when you arrive. She was only 9 months and 9 days old when she gazed at me, in my arms, and left to be with Our Lord.! Her Birthday was the day after you left, she would have been 54 years old! She will still be a Baby when you meet her in the next day or so. The Girls from 92nd St. and I will celebrate your Life together in a Meditation. We didn't receive the information in time, as I just saw it on Facebook today. You are Free and Swimming in the Glory of Eternity! You leave behind Hearts filled with love! Know that Ulli and I are so glad we had that Final talk two weeks ago, We all three wept together, it was a very Holy Time. I love you Eternally! Love, Karmen and Ulli.
