“ For my amazing Grandmother.....I will miss you every moment you're gone. I've missed chatting with you on the phone, talking about everything & anything. I've missed calling you an "old bat", just to get a rise outta you, and you pretend to beat me up 😞😭. I've missed sharing our grief over losing our soul mates, and being able to talk to you abt it anytime I needed to. I've missed seeing your cute little self taking walks through town. Im going to miss painting your nails while you go through all the animal pics i have on my phone. You've made me so proud to tell people you're my Gram. You were always there to comfort me when I was growing up, and made sure I never went without. I've learned countless lessons from you. This hurts so bad, but im so happy I got to hold your hand for that hour. I know you knew I was there, and that's comforting. I'm so lucky I had that chance to say goodbye to you, and asked you to give Totpot & Charlie hugs & kisses from me. I hope you knew what an enormous impact you had on my life. There's a reason why you had the title of being my GRANDma. No one cld ever measure up to you. My love will never fade, and I won't ever stop missing you. I love you, Gram 😘💕💔
