

Howard Martin Hess

June 27, 1938 - December 4, 2019

Howard Martin “Marty” Hess, 81, of Middletown, NY, passed away on December 4, 2019 at Middletown Park Rehab.

Marty was born June 27, 1938. He attended Samuel J Tilden High in Brooklyn, NY, as well as graduating from University of Illinois with an undergraduate degree. He worked many years at Capricorn Luxury Travel in NYC before retiring. He was an avid traveler and enjoyed his time spent exploring fine cuisine. He especially loved spending time with his granddaughters.

Marty is survived by his daughter Sara, son-in-law, Sean Patterson, and granddaughters Georgia and Daisy Patterson. He also leaves behind his long-time companion, Dorothy La Penter, and her granddaughters Jennifer and Nicole La Penter, and one great-grandson Trevor Sustack who he thought of as his own.

He was predeceased by his mother Gertrude Tropper, and his daughter Jane Rubinstein.

Marty will always be remembered having a smile on his face, his generosity and willingness to help others.

Donations can be made in his honor to the Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson’s research at www.michaeljfox.org.
