

Mrs Jeannette J Tiess

January 10, 1934 - April 8, 2020

Jeannette J. Tiess, 86, of Middletown, New York, passed away on April 8, 2020, in Orange Regional Medical Center, Middletown, New York.

Jeannette was born in the Bronx to Raymond and Josephine Figueroa on January 10, 1934. Jeannette was a devoted wife to husband Robert J. Tiess, Sr. (born May 31, 1932), who she married on February 10, 1952. She worked for a while as a typist and later became a dedicated homemaker.

Jeannette delighted in many things, from the artistic to the intellectual and beyond: classical and contemporary music, jazz, opera, ballet, art, literature, literary criticism, poetry, mythology, philosophy, cinema, musicals, animations, documentaries, performing arts, and more.

She also found much joy in various crafts, cooking, gardening, holiday decorations, angels, butterflies, playing games and puzzles on and off the computer, dressing up, going on outings of all kinds, and meeting new people wherever she went.

Jeannette was a great listener, a generous and loving person, as well as a lifelong inspiration and best friend to her son, with whom she lived. Above all, she prized her Christian faith, maintained a wonderful sense of humor, and savored life to the fullest.

Jeannette is survived by her son, Robert J. Tiess, Jr., and daughter Barbara, both of Middletown, New York.

“ To Robert , My Deepest Sympathy to you.
Mrs. Jean will be Greatly missed but never Forgotten. It was my pleasure to know her we had plenty talks she was a kind person I would always look forward to seeing her @ the Library. She was the Mother of Thrall to many.... Sending Prayers for you @ this Emotional time in your life may you find Peace, Love, Joy, Happiness & Comfort within from God in the days to come.
Something I want to share with you before I end ;

Those we Love
Don't go away
they walk beside us Every day
Unseen, Unheard.
But always near still Loved, still missed
And very dear to our Heart .....
