“ *My Dear Cousins and Family, I'm very sorry for your loss. It's a blessing you all have so many happy memories of your Mom/Nani.
I'll always remember the holiday feasts Aunt Jennie lovingly served up in the basement on Orangeburg Rd. She knew how to cook a mean rabbit! (even though I would never eat it!!)
Rest in Peace Aunt Jennie, you are surrounded with love.
Cousin Linda*

“ *I always called her by the name of Mortadella..
Back in the day when Sue and I did our best trolling.. Sue and I would go home to her house in River Vale and raid the refrigerator down in the second Kitchen and sometimes that would be all that was there to eat.. When it's 3am anything tastes good.. The next day she wondered who at her Mortadella.. We would just laugh and she would just shake her head... lol
What I will miss the most besides seeing her in person is her asking Sue and I .. What are you two Up to.? No good !!, Are you getting drunk!!! She knew us too well..
I loved her wit and sarcasm.. What a beautiful , loving , giving and caring women .
Everyone loved her.. I will miss you my Mortadella Love you ,
Cheryl*
