“ When I was a kid growing up, I spent the summer’s with my six cousins. Jerry was one of them. Some of my best childhood memories are spending time with “the kids” as I called them. It’s hard to believe he is gone, but he will never be forgotten, and will always be loved.

“ When I first moved to Pine Bush area, Jerry and I constantly ended up in the same car groups together when we’d volunteer in the ministry. Always always, I think of all he taught me when I’m introducing Jerry to someone new.

Jerry had a way with people. He kept it real, and all of it came from a good place. He had such a positive effect on the neighbors we’d visit. And he knew ALL of them! I felt at home with the community after those first weeks in NY, learning from Jerry.

Right up to these last few months, no matter what he was going through, Jerry always took the time to offer a kind word and a smile when we’d see each other at the hall.

He has been a constant in my life since I first moved here.

I’m really going to miss him. ... Already miss seeing him at his usual seat at the hall.

I’m grateful to have met him and even more grateful that we both knew that very soon, we’ll be running into each other forever more times! (& under much better conditions)

*Hugs to his blood family! Thanks for sharing him with us! *

“ While I was in yoga today, relaxed and meditative, I thought about my dear brother Jerry a lot. He was an interesting guy and interesting is far better than boring. He worked hard, played hard and ate hard. I think he got a giggle realizing he got there first before the rest of his brothers and sisters. I think Jerry found peace and happiness in his later years and I'm proud and admire him for that. I know he's fully at peace now and I hope he'll keep an eye on me along with the others who have gone on before me. I love you my brother Jerry. Say hi! to God and put in a good word for me.

“ Jerry was a very loving brother. His only weakness was that he cared so much about everyone else and not enough about himself. He will be dearly missed.

“ I loved my brother-in-law Jerry so much. He was a very caring, loving, gentle soul. Jerry was such a hard worker and was a true artist when it came to his tile work. How I wish I had pictures of all the tile jobs he did. 50 years ago, Jerry gifted me my first piece of white Fenton milk glass and afterwards he added several more pieces. Thanks to Jerry I've been a lifelong collector of milk glass which has brought me much joy. Rest in peace Jerry.

“ It was our privilege to take Jerry to our JW Conventions. Packing his lunch was also included. At one lunch period, we got separated and when found he was very comfortable eating in the Elderly section with a sister feeding him Shrimp! Everyone was drawn to Jerry!-he is so missed! *Jerry will definitely be missed!
He was an outstanding example of someone who overcame huge obstacles in life to better himself and others.
During the time that Covid ravaged the earth, Jerry spent many hours volunteering his time to encourage others. He would regularly write by hand and send out over 100 letters per month to nearby communities, offering words of hope and encouragement! And this did not come easy for him. But his love of God and his neighbors motivated him to do more than he thought he could. (Matthew 22:37-39) He will always stand out as an example to me. I will miss his unique personality, driven tenacity, and crazy ties!

*Jerry will always be remembered as someone who was sincere, hardworking and guided by his faith. I enjoyed working with him because I learned something from him every time. He was a man who lived without pretense, who meant what he said and stuck by his word. I found Jerry to be a very considerate listener, whose practical examples of modesty, humility and kindness have left an impression upon me which I can only hope to imitate.
He will be greatly missed.
