

Jesús Manuel Carrasquillo

January 22, 1930 - December 20, 2021

Jesús Manuel Carrasquillo was born to Manuel Carrasquillo and Atilana Sánchez on January 22, 1930, in Loíza, Puerto Rico. He departed this life on December 20, 2021. He was married to Lorenza Aurea Suárez on November 22, 1953, and they had five daughters. At the time of his death, he was survived by his wife.

Following the American dream, the family relocated to Brooklyn, New York in June 1968. Jesús was a meticulous, independent man who paid attention to detail. Throughout his life he showed a resilience that helped him overcome great adversity. These qualities were admired by those who knew him well. He loved sports, politics, and music. His hobbies were playing the güiro and congas.

Jesús is survived by his brother, Caco, and three sisters: Nilda, Iris, and Olga in Puerto Rico. Five daughters: Inés Milagros in Illinois, Tila Loren in Massachusetts, Ana Zoraida in Illinois, Lissie Jesusa in New York, and Sol Rina in New York, and eight grandchildren. In addition, he is survived by his oldest niece, Ivette, eight additional nieces, six nephews, two grandnieces, and two grandnephews in Puerto Rico.

A Memorial Service honoring the life of Jesús Manuel Carrasquillo will be held in Middletown, New York on June 14, 2023, at 9:30 a.m. EST, at Martinez-

Morse Funeral Home. This will be followed by a Requiem Mass at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church and an interment at St. Joseph's Cemetery. The service will be live-streamed and recorded for future viewing via YouTube (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7pxaUx-_9A4).

A scholarship honoring Jesús and his wife, the Lorenza Aurea and Jesús Manuel Carrasquillo Memorial Scholarship, has been established at Boricua College. In lieu of flowers, a donation to the Scholarship fund is appreciated. For details, please contact Ines Carrasquillo at 956-328- 1938, or email to doctorcarrasquillo@gmail.com.
