

John Graziano

January 3, 1954 - November 25, 2014

John Graziano formally of Otisville, N.Y. passed away November 23, 2014 at the Kaplan Hospice Center.

He was born on January 3, 1954 in Middletown, N.Y. the son of Benjamin and Eileen (Meany) Graziano.

When John was able, he was an avid outdoorsman. He enjoyed hunting, trapping and fishing. As a young boy, John was known for bringing stray and wounded animals homes to save them. He was also an outstanding artist.

John was a graduate of Minisink Valley High School and Tractor Trailer Driving School in Cherry Hill, N.J. and drove for North American Van Lines.

Many will remember John for his personality and sense of humor.

John is survived by his brother Frank (Cilla) of Otisville, N.Y., his sister Eileen Ketcham (Charles) of Otisville, N.Y., and his brother Benjamin (Gladys) of Otisville, N.Y. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be private,

Arrangements were under the care of Morse Funeral Home, Inc.

John was my Uncle, as Frank was my father, and I was never informed that my Uncle John passed away. My dad had taken me to visit him, bit I was very young. I still think of him often.
