

Kathleen Ann Richardson

November 5, 1948 - June 5, 2021

Kathleen Richardson, 72, of Wurtsboro, NY, passed away peacefully, Saturday, June 5th, at her residence. A mother and grandmother that was loved, is missed, and will always be cherished.

Kathleen was born in Rockville Center, New York on November 5, 1948, daughter of the late Doris (Hellberg) and Everett Saxton.

She started her career with NYSDOCS after high school as a stenographer. One of her greatest accomplishments was attending SUNY New Paltz for her BA in Social Work to become a Correctional Counselor.

Kathy was happiest in her role as "Nana" to her grandson, lover of animals; especially her dogs. Her artistic abilities never stopped shining...drawing, painting, pottery, and gardening, came naturally to her. Her sense of humor and down to earth personality will be remembered by anyone who knew her.

Kathy is survived by two children: Andrew Leser, of Kingston; Jessica Richardson of Pine Bush. She is also survived by her grandson Jack; brother Thomas Saxton, sister-in-law Florence Saxton, sister Laurie Whightsil.

A Memorial Service will be held at DeWitt-Martinez Funeral Home, 64 Center St., Pine Bush, NY 12566, on Thursday, June 10th from 2PM to 4PM. As an alternative to flowers, donations can be made to Hospice of Orange & Sullivan in her honor.

I remember my Cousin Kathy for so many things. She had a crazy sense of humor, smart wit, very talented in everything she tried n a positive influence on me, her younger cousin by two years! She taught me the better aspects of life, and consequently we got into a lot of mischief! I'll will miss her so much n her one of a kind spirit! May you Rest In Peace among all the Wildflowers n dance to your hearts content! Love your cousin, Connie
