“ Lillian is my mother. I miss her more than words can say. She was a fighter and the strongest women I ever knew. I remember the last time we went to the Americana diner together and had breakfast. We were laughing and having a great time. I will never forget you mommy. liii love you

Sorry for your loss

“ I was just a young child when Lillian married my cousin, Pete but I do remember she was a happy, kind person. We didn't see much of each other through the years but recently connected through social media. It was wonderful to have the opportunity to know her on an adult basis, I realized she hadn't changed & my childhood memories of her remained exactly the same. My thoughts & prayers are with her family. Her loss has touched many 🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏

Thank you for your kind words. She was a heck of a fighter and the best mother in the world. She did everything for everyone the best that she could. She will truly be missed and loved by many
