“ Linda and I, along with our families, spent time together all our life. Our childhood is filled with wonderful times and I loved my cousin so much. When I lived in Middletown, we both went to St John's Lutheran Church and sat together during the service. We did great crafts together on Monday nights with the group from St. John's. Another night, after work, her mom, sisters and other family members would get together to do crafts and just visit. I will miss you my sweet cousin. Now you are in heaven to watch over your beautiful family. I love you all, Aunt Ruth
