“ We had so much in common from growing up in the Bronx to the kind of man we wanted to marry. Always encouraging each other and both loving "I love Lucy". I know heaven is the goal but wish we had you a little bit longer.

“ Words cannot adequately express the outpour of emotions regarding the loss of Lorraine. She deeply loved her family. Please accept our deepest condolences from the Copeland Family (Chris, Jackie, Mykaela and Marissa). Lorraine will be so greatly missed. She has and her memory will continue to have an impact on so many people’s lives. She serves as a model and inspiration to me (Jackie) in many ways (I cannot begin to list them all); her talents astounded me. We deeply grieve for her family and hope and pray that they can find some solace in knowing with confidence that Lorraine is with her Lord and Savior Jesus.
