“ The Chester family reunion in heaven continues. Tonia was a great soul. Growing up she was a quiet but strong individual. Although all of us grew up poor each of our parents made sure we grew up happy and together back in those days. Miss those days. God Bless all of you but know she had her friends waiting on the other side and are welcoming her with open arms. May God Bless her new journey.

“ My fondest memory iwas going to her house in Chester and be received with warmest welcome and so much food! I remember her ham and macaroni salad. The best! She was the perfect host and always so happy to see us and share a day with her beloved sister, bother and nieces and nephews. I always look forward to those visits
