“ My dearest Marian,
It was a great honor to be your caregiver for 3 years. I'll cherish the memories, the moments, the talks, the laughter, the good and sad times, and the dinner times together.
I've learned so much from you.
Your love of animals, birds, food, clothing and jewelry.
When I see the Cardinals, and all the birds,
I'll remember you!
When I visit places, and restaurants,
I'll remember you!
When I'm around food, drinks, and desserts,
I'll remember you!
Your love for smoothies, Chobani, Yaso, potatoes, shrimp cocktail, salad, pizza, anything that includes onion.
Your morning egg on toast with vitamin coffee.
Perogies, Polish Sausage, nuts, snacks, and so much more. Your never ending sweet tooth. The Dove Dark Chocolate treats, the cakes and pastries.
Your love of dressing up, jewelry, scarves, brooches, and shoes.
And I'd say, 'You look like a million bucks.' And you'll smile.
It was an honor to know your cats, Callie and Barley. I love them dearly. ❤️
I will miss you Marian. I love you ❤️
Forever in my heart ❤️
1Cor. 15:26 And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.
Isa. 25:8 He will swallow up death forever
John 5:28,29 Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.

My hope and faith is to see you again in the resurrection and be with you in Paradise.
