He was my man back in 86/87 at JHS 10. Such an awesome guy. I moved abroad in Aug 87, then back in Aug 93. I spent years wondering whatever happened to him and even searched for him for a long time with no success. I found this about 2 years ago and was heartbroken. May God rest for soul old friend, you were truly one of a kind. I'm sorry we never got the chance to reconnect and talk about the fun times we had.

“ Oh man. I knew Marlon as a kid, we were best friends in Astoria before his family moved to Brooklyn. I visited him a few times there as well, but the distance was too much (and I was too young).

We played on his computer, typing in programs from magazines and saving them onto cassette tape! (I'm a computer engineer to this day!) We'd play sports in our yards, and TBH he beat me like every single time.

Was always a great person. Just real stand-up guy, very loyal. Had his head on straight, always mature. Awesome smile and laugh. I was never ever able to find him afterward, and I'm said that I didn't catch up with him before he passed. Wish the best to his family.

I'm sad that I didn't catch up with him before he passed.
