“ Phil, Stacey and all of us that loved Maureen. There are no words...I thank God that he allowed me to meet and get to know Maureen. She was all heart.. I remember being at the Calvano's one evening with Tony and Lynn, Buster and Dewey and of course, Phil and Maureen. Mo asked me if I played poker...I told he not really, just a little bit and she said " come here and sit by me, we'll teach you". Needless to say I learned how to play and lost most of my money! She was a great lady, great mom, great wife and great friend. Rest in Peace and may the light of perpetual life shine upon her. In the Irish tradition, I pray that you were in heaven at least an hour before the devil knew you were dead! ❤️❤️❤️
