

Merida Mima Diaz Montero

November 21, 2022

Merida Diaz-Montero, lovingly known as “Mima”, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by family. She was a devoted, wonderful and hardworking mother, a loving grandmother/great grandmother and godmother.

Merida raised three children against all odds while always finding time to help others and never thinking of herself. She was loyal to her family and friends, and generous and kind to all. She was fierce and resilient facing life’s challenges until the end. Never giving up in the face of adversity. She leaves her family the most precious gift of all, a legacy of love, strength and respect. Merida lived life as a giver not a taker!

Merida was a lifelong resident of Yonkers, N.Y. and committed parishioner of St. Peter’s church.

In lieu of flowers, the family would like donations made to the American Diabetes association or the Alzheimer Association of American

“ I will always remember my cousin Nellita, as family lovingly called her. She was sharp and loved to use sarcasm while joking and she brilliantly did it with a smirk on her face. She made me laugh and had me guessing as to whether she was joking or trying to tell me something or maybe both. She was a caring mother and daughter and left her mark in this world. Much love to her and her family❤️.

“ Mima

Our beautiful, devoted, talented and hardworking mom. I'm sorry I didnt tell you before how great you have always been.

We want to thank you for being such a giving generous soul. We learned by example. We learned from the best.

You raised us 3 children with practically nothing and yet you found time and space to help others in need.

You and Mami and Papa viejo set an example that will never be forgotten.

Your granddaughters will always remember their "mima" and you will always live in our hearts.

I know everyone has losses so we are not special, yet the pain is still tough to accept.

I tried to finish your obituary but everytime I try... I choke. I'm sorry so I thought I should just write you this note.
