Ramona 'Monin' Diaz

April 23, 1943 – February 13, 2026

Ramona Diaz, born on April 23, 1943, in Puerto Rico, came to New York as a child and consequently built a family with strength and love. She was a woman whose contagious laughter could brighten any room and whose strength and independence defined the way she lived her life.

Ramona had a deep love for cooking and found great joy in preparing meals for her family and friends. The kitchen was a place of warmth, comfort, and togetherness. Through her food, she expressed her love—bringing everyone to the table with recipes seasoned by tradition and care.

She was a devoted and loving wife to Jose Diaz for 40 wonderful years until his passing in 2003. Together they built a life rooted in resilience and family. Ramona was a proud and nurturing mother to her three children, Lourdes, Sharon and Jose Jr., and her love only multiplied as she became a cherished grandmother and great-grandmother. Her family was her greatest accomplishment and her proudest joy.

Ramona is survived by her children Lourdes, Sharon and Jose Jr.; her brother Hector Rodriguez; as well as her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who will forever carry her spirit in their hearts.

Family and friends are invited to pay their respects during the viewing on Thursday, February 26, from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Martinez-Morse Funeral Home, located at 33 Railroad Avenue in Middletown, New York.

Ramona's laughter, strength, and unwavering love for her family will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
