

Randy Lee Hill

November 26, 1949 - November 24, 2020

Randy Hill, 70, of Newburgh, New York, passed away on November 24, 2020. He was born to parents, William and Beatrice Hill in Cairo, GA.

After graduating from high school in Tallahassee, FL in 1967, Randy joined the United States Army. The Army afforded Randy the opportunity to visit many beautiful places to include London, England. This is where he met and married his wife for life, Delores Hill in 1971, who survives him.

Randy is survived by Delores' two daughters, Althea Brown and family, Enfield, CT, and Karen Favors and Family, Dover, DE. His daughters Deborah Diggs, Leominster, MA, and Marcia Streety, grandchildren Kitara Clark, Shaquan McSwain, and Nyla Hooker, and great-grandchildren James Clark III and Ava McLain, Fayetteville, North Carolina. His special friend Regina Tisdale and a host of other family members.

He is predeceased by parents William and Beatrice Hill, his sisters Loistine Hill, Baretta Hill, Zeree Smith, and brother V. James Hill.

Randy was trained as a cook through the Army and he had a knack for baking which he continued to do for family and friends after he left the military. He enjoyed trying new things and always looked for opportunities to create new streams of income.

The Memorial Service will be held on Friday, April 9th at 1 pm at Orange County Veterans Memorial Cemetery, 111 Craigville Road, Goshen, NY.

Tribute Wall

“ Dreamed of you the other day we went for a ride, I fell asleep and you jokingly told me my breath stunk lol. Love you Randy. Thank you for being the role model you were for my son and loving him as your own. Thank you for all the fish fries and thank you for being a friend. Your flesh may be gone but you live on in spirit. We love you! ”
