

Raynard Cody

July 25, 1967 - June 8, 2024

On July 25th, 1967, Raynard was born the seventh child to the union of John and Zora Cody. Raised in Brooklyn, NY, where he lived most of his life, he attended P.S. 138 and continued to P.S. 67 located in Fort Greene. After attending Dr. Susan Smith McKinney J.H.S., he went on to Martin Luther King Jr. High School where he ran Cross Country Track with his brother, Roland. At an early age, Raynard became a father to his oldest and only son Marquis Terrel. During his adult years, Raynard held various jobs as a sanitation worker, a school custodian, a security guard, and a short order cook. Then he was blessed with the addition of two daughters; first it was Tammara Sausha and later, Tamia Chasity was born. Raynard diligently continued his career in the restaurant industry at this time until he was no longer able to do so. But his love for cookouts, barbecues, and family get-togethers continued and remained the same. The Lord called Raynard home on June 8th, 2024. He is predeceased by his parents and eldest brother, Raymond. He is survived by his children, Marquis, Tammara, and Tamia, his grandson Elijah, his brother Roland, his sisters Zora, Debra, Marya, Rosalind, his sister-in-law Dorothea, his brother-in-law Kasim, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends. Raynard will be truly missed and ALWAYS LOVED!
