“ I know as time passes we all tend to create a life of our own and drift apart, but I will always have a place in my heart that was touched by you. You're like a mother to me. I was very lucky to have you in my life as a young child. You will be missed but never forgotten, I love you Red.

“ Rhonda, you fought your own battle as best you could. I've known you casually for 8 years, but these last 5 months we spent so much time and I grew to love you!!
You were an inspiration to me everyday and now my heart aches for your family and Elmie. I just wish we got to know each other sooner. I really miss you!! Love and see you again someday. Peace to all family and loved ones!!
