

Robert Peter Tveit

July 2, 1946 - May 14, 2020

Robert P. Tveit, a longtime resident of Middletown, New York, entered into rest after a long battle with cancer on Thursday, May 14, in New York City. He was 73. Son of the late Norman and Leona Tveit, Robert was born in New York City on July 2, 1946. He was raised in Rockland County, N.Y., and moved to Middletown in Orange County, N.Y., where he ran a successful business with his brothers, raised a family, and lived the remaining years of his life.

As a young man, Robert served in the Army, ran several businesses, managed properties, and had a thriving construction business with his two brothers. Robert had a passionate love for his family, golfing, and fly fishing. He also enjoyed playing sports and listening to music, especially bowling and Bob Dylan. He was an enthusiastic fan of the Yankees and the UConn women's basketball team. Robert was a loving son, brother, and father, and he will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

Robert is survived by his three daughters Brooke Donato and her husband Dominic, Kasey Tveit and her husband Ken, and Josephine Thames and her husband Richie; his two granddaughters Violet Donato and Cathryn Thames; his siblings Rosemarie Hueffel, Norman Tveit and his wife Darlene, Sharon Degroat and her husband John, Stanley Tveit and his wife Rosemarie, and Margaret Quimby and her husband Ralph; several nieces and nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews.

Due to the current Covid-19 restrictions, the memorial service will be private, and a larger celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Absolutely beautiful! Bobby always had a smile. This tribute did justice to him during this difficult time with the pandemic. His brother, Chip & I, will always love him. His last words to his brother “see you on the other side”! ❤️❤️

As you were speaking with him, Uncle Bob made you feel as if you were the most important person at that moment . He was interested in what you had to say. He asked questions. He loved on you. He truly was the best!

A great teammate and classmate as a member of the great Clarkstown Rams Football team, Class of 1964. We went undefeated during our final season (fall of 1963), and he was a part of what made it happen. He was also in the Senior Class Play, THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER. Lots of memories and laughs having fun, class pranks, hanging out. He will be missed by his classmates and teammates.
