There are people that come and go in our journey of life. Some will leave a imprint, forever. Rose' was one that influenced my life. She loved me; even before she ever met me. I remember the first time going to Rose's house. I remember Jason, her beautiful white with brown spotted dog. So soft and clean and did not let anyone to close to his Mom. When I think of Rose' I always think white, clean and beautiful. Her doll collection, showed her personality. Happy and beautiful. If you ever went upstairs; it was a kids paradise! Everything in its place. Dolls arranged like it was tea party time. See, Rose' was my Step Mom. She spent a lot of quality time with me. She took me to Park and swimming pool and library on a regular bases. She always stayed with me. Never left me even on the hottest days. She was always pretty! Always took to look good, daily. My sons stopped to surprise her. She cracked the door and said, " come back in 45 minutes 😊." One Christmas she got me a doll house. She wrapped every single piece of furniture. She always enjoyed the 700 Club and on most of the time. As I myself would not watch that now; it also made a print. Her sisters and brother and all the family gatherings. These people knew how to cook and plenty of food for the whole neighborhood ❤️. I had my son Matthew; almost 40 years ago next month. She loved and cared for him; just like she did for me. She was his, Nana, always. I cherish every talk I had with Rose' over the years. We covered a lot a area's. I am pretty sure I will never hear someone that answered the phone the same way. You could hear a happy, pleasant, Hello! Something's never changed! I was Blessed, because she loved me and my son and family.
