“ Scott was the brightest light in a sky full of stars. When I think of him, Mark Twain's words come to mind: „ You meet people who forget you. You forget people you meet. But sometimes you meet those people you can't forget. Those are your friends." Those words describe Scott to a T. He never met a stranger and always made you feel like family. Auf Wiedersehen, my dear friend; we will miss you terribly. Your candle may have gone out, but the memory of its light remains forever in our hearts.
To my beloved cousin Judy and kids: Words of sympathy feel inadequate in expressing our grief and sorrow for a loss so great. Sending a warm embrace and all our love during this sad and difficult time. Julika, Harvey and the Braun/Lessmeister family.

“ I don't know where to begin. Our friendship has a special history and has lasted a lifetime no matter how much life got in the way. The times we had together were so unbelievable and so memorable. Our conversations about just anything always left me in a better place. Having a friend that you can share the things that are important with is priceless. I was blessed to have such a friend. Thank you for sharing your integrity, your humor and outlook on life and your faith. You will be missed beyond words.

“ Kurt and I have so many great memories of our fun times with Scott. He came into my life when Kurt and I started dating over 55 years ago. When Scott was with us, it was ALWAYS a good time. He was such a warm, loving, thoughtful, cousin and friend. When he and Judy married it was like the butterfly emerged from its cocoon!! He became an amazing husband and father who enriched every life he touched. Our thoughts, prayers and love are with Judy and the family.

“ Scottie was a great friend and softball partner, I will always fondly and gratefully remember the times sitting at his and Judy's dining room table simply talking about whatever came to mind and enjoying every second of it.

I will always be thankful for the times we shared after ASA games as we had a beer or two as he told me, for the 50th time, his "toe-truck" joke (and yes, it was funny every time).

I will remember the time he literally picked me up and carried me off the field at Davidge Park to protect me from getting into it with an irate player. I will fondly remember me calling him a "knucklehead" whenever he went behind "the dish" with no protective equipment other than a face mask. His response: "real men don't need shin guards and a chest protector". So typical of him.

Although I am older than Scottie, he was actually my big brother; he was truly one of a kind. May God bless his soul and bless Judy and all Scott's family.

“ Too many memories to share but he was everything a big brother should be. He was the life of the party, he was the protector, he was there with advice and always made family come before anything else. Much love, you will be missed. Go walk with mom, dad and Cary. This is not goodbye it is until we meet again!
