“ Hi, I did not know your mother but I read her obituary in the newspaper this morning and was deeply touched. I wanted to share with you something that was shared with me when my own mother stepped from this life into the eternal one:

Grief is the price we pay for love. Where there was great love, there will be tremendous grief. But, for those of us who know and love God, we have the promise of Heaven and of a 'family reunion' one day. God made a Way for us by sacrificing His Son for us to spend eternity with Him.

People will tell you that they are "sorry for your loss" - tell them that you didn't 'lose' your Mom. You know where she went and Who she is with and you will see her again one day in Heaven. Amen
