

Thomas J Nolan

February 16, 1934 - January 23, 2020

Thomas Joseph Nolan, 85, of Middletown, NY, passed away on January 23, 2020 in Middletown, NY.

Tom was born in Manhattan, NY to Kathleen Clements and Thomas Nolan on February 16, 1934.

He enlisted in the United States Navy and served on the USS Sage.

He then worked as a firefighter in Brooklyn, NY.

He enjoyed riding his motorcycle, scuba diving, speedskating, skiing, horseback riding, golfing, fishing, hunting and bike racing.

He owned several boats, several campers and traveled cross country.

He was a member of the NRA and the antique motorcycle club in Newburgh, NY.

Tom is survived by his loving wife of 45 years, Roberta Nolan, his daughters, Shari Cannone {Gerard Schultz} and Amy Demetriou his four grandchildren, Michael Cannone, Andrew Cannone,

Christopher Demetriou, and Stephanie Demetriou and his two cats, Simon and Lily, as well as several cousins and other loved ones.

My heart leaves my body and goes wherever you go. Tom, you were the kindest man I ever knew.

I loved you so much and more. Rest in peace, my darling, and please wait for me. This is not the end.

Love, Roberta.
