“ I knew Tom from Mid City transit where he taught me to drive the city transit bus in Middletown. I always loved listening to him. Tell me so many stories of so many interesting things he even was intrigued by my oldest daughter who wrote books and he just recently had given me the copies of those books because she gave them to him when she was a young girl. After not seeing him for many years because he left Mid City one day I was driving around and he came up behind me and we got out and, we hugged and were able to feel so happy to see each other. He was an amazing person had such a great stories to tell and I loved seeing him smile and I loved the love that he shared with so many, he will definitely be missed and I will always remember him God bless and prayers to his family and friends , and most of all to his wife Cheri
