In Loving Memory of Tifuci-Cardo Caleb Reid (TC)

Tifuci-Cardo Caleb Reid, affectionately known as TC, was born on April 2, 2006, in Goshen, New York, and tragically departed from this world on November 4, 2024. Despite his short time on earth, TC touched the lives of many with his kindness, generosity, and unconditional love.

Born at Orange Regional Hospital in Goshen, New York, TC was the beloved son of Sonja Coates and Michael Reid. He was a cherished sibling to Maxwell Reid, Marah Carr, Ellicia Squires, Michael Reid Jr., and Natalee Reid. TC found his soulmate in his beloved wife, Nicole Maldonado. He is survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, a host of nieces and nephews, and a world of friends who became family to him.

TC was soon to be an early graduate from Middletown High School & also pursued his passion for auto mechanics at BOCES, known as "Mr. Fix it" and everybody's go-to guy. From a young age, he discovered a passion for BMWs, Hondas, and any car he touched. TC educated himself & others in their mechanics, design, and intricacies. He could often be found under the hood, his hands skillfully & successfully bringing engines back to life & doing remarkable things that people with 40+ years of experience haven't even done. His face lit up with determination and joy.

But T'C's true gift was the love & care he gave to others. He was a helper, always willing to go the extra mile, literally. No matter the time or place, he would walk a mile or more to lend a hand to a friend in need. His kindness knew no boundaries, extending even to those in society often overlooked. TC had an uncanny ability to see the good in everyone, and his compassion touched the lives of everyone, offering them a sense of dignity and hope.

TC was more than a son, a brother, and a friend— he was a beacon of light to everyone who had the privilege of knowing him and crossed paths. His smile was infectious, his loyalty unwavering, and his generosity endless. TC leaves behind a legacy of kindness, dedication, and love.

In honor of his life, may we all strive to walk that extra mile for those in need, just as he always did. Though TC may no longer be physically present, his love, spirit, and memory will continue to inspire and uplift those who were touched by his presence. May his soul rest in eternal peace. TC, you will be forever missed and always remembered. Rest easy, you beautiful soul, & keep the engines running in heaven for us until we meet again. TC, your memory will forever be cherished.

“ *To TC's family,
I am so very sorry for your loss. I only found out about his loss yesterday.
I met TC while he was working for my daughter's father at Martine's Service Center in Middletown. He was a really nice young man. You should be proud of the son you raised.
When he told me to call him TC... I said to him. Like Top Cat? He said Yes!
May your many beautiful memories bring you peace and comfort during these difficult times. My sincerest heartfelt condolences to you all.*

“ Sitting in my car looking at your face and missing all of the things I could have done had a been around even just a little more. I would have annoyed you telling you all the things you shouldn't do and trying to make my ideas for your life yours because that's what us "almost" old people do, but we definitely could've pulled out and put in a few car parts together because, as I have told your mother, I know things. 😊 It amazes me how much your cousins are like you and your siblings. A thousand miles away, living completely different lives and are clearly still cut from the same cloth. I have many regrets and you know them now. I don't think I can say that I am sorry enough, even though I can hear you say it's ok, it's not just yet. In my heart idk that it ever will be. I am happy you had so much love around you but I wish you knew it extended far beyond NY before now. I wish you could have called to complain or say hi or ask for money for something that your mom told you no to so that I can tell you I love you but it ain't happenin. Lol. I should have been there. I've been told that as long as you share memories and speak of a person they will remain with you so please know sweet pea that baby pictures and stories will forever continue and I will make sure your cousins know and love the amazing person you became. And I will make sure to do better. To do the things I should have before now. I love you baby. Always and forever.
