“ So so very sorry for your loss. Some 50 plus years ago I was so lucky to have met Vinny as we worked in the Montague SR. He a Department Mgr. I a lowly part time produce dept. kid. He taught me to control my temper and to dish back what management was dishing out. He took me under his wing and I'm eternally grateful he did because it enabled me to have a 49 year career with SR. If it was not for Vinny who knows where I would be and I would not be where I am today. He will always be my hero. He was a true Gentle Gentleman. He is truly missed and will always be in my heart. Love to the family and I hope God brings you peace.

“ I'm so sorry for all of you. Vinny was a great man to work with in the Montague shoprite When I was rewrapping produce he would always say to me peggy please wrap me up some mushrooms if there is any and save them for me. Vinny was one of the best. He was like my family. I will always remember watching him on the shoprite commercial many years ago. So cool that I knew the man on TV.
