

Wendy Ortiz

November 2, 1975 - March 21, 2021

Wendy Ortiz was born to Fernando and Dulce Ortiz on November 2, 1975 in Middletown, New York, where she was raised.

During her time as a student in the Middletown School District, she had many friends. Her circle of friends grew more throughout her career in the medical field that began at the age of 18. She always had a passion for helping the less fortunate. Wendy tirelessly advocated for her patient's physiological and essential needs before, during, and after their medical needs were met. Wendy's fierceness in raising, protecting, and loving her boys, her kind, considerate nature, and her bright, beautiful smile are her most precious qualities. She will be remembered for always lending a helping hand. Wendy passed peacefully in her sleep on March 21, 2021.

Wendy is survived by her parents, her adoring children Geno and Gavin, and her siblings, Yvette Ortiz, Marisol, and Joseph Oliver, Maribel and Michael Thompson, and Fernando Ortiz. She has many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins who she held very close to her heart. Wendy also leaves behind her best friend Colleen Corcoran and family mentors Joe and Darlene Martinez. She will be dearly missed by everyone that knew her.

Visitation will be held on Thursday, March 25th from 5-7pm at Martinez-Morse Funeral Home, 33 Railroad Ave., Middletown, NY. Due to NYS restrictions,

Losing a mother or a child is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness, her caring, and her wisdom live on-like a legacy of love that will always be with you. ... In life, we loved you dearly, in death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place, no one else will ever fill.

“ I can still see Wendy’s big smile and bright eyes. I can see her face while she laughs loudly at something funny that a family member said. I can see her face while she calls me “Titi”.

Wendy was a person that didn’t want to call attention to herself. And yet, here she is! She made sure we all got together to think, cry and love her. She even died on the birthday of two of her uncles, Rosendo “Rusty” Marrero (on her mother’s side) and Mario Ortiz (on her father’s side). So when we were supposed to be writing birthday messages on the family’s chat, we were thinking, talking and crying Wendy’s physical leave.

Wendy, estás en nuestros corazones. Te amo. Dios te bendiga.
Rest in peace.

“ I regret that our families lost touch, I regret allowing the isolation to continue. I regret the losing of a cousin circumstances have caused, but most of all, I am sorry such a sweet person like Wendy is no longer here for us. Her laugh was bigger than most, and that is something I will not lose. So I will try to remember the fun times and I hope that you can too. While Wendy won't be with the family physically, as long as we can remember her, she won't have truly left. Vaya con Dios ninita.

“ Wendy was a smile n laugh in the most silent n awkward moments,so many times ahe would be laughing while we were getting yelled at by our parents,aunts,uncles. One time when most of the family came to PR,we all sat together with most of the cousins and was just laught till our stomachs hurt,she always use to say "i know right" to everything,i can still here it. I know God will let us meet again,thats the promise he has made to all of us,till then REST.
Love you,
Titi Lucy y Tio Fernando
Te Amo que Dios te de la fortaleza para aguantar.

“Wendy was one of the most hard-working, dependable people I've ever known. Beyond that, she was a friend, partner in crime, concert buddy, and confidant. I was possibly the first person she told about being pregnant with Geno. And what a devoted Mom she became! She was strong-willed as she was soft. Although we were separated by miles the last several years, she was still one of my dearest friends. My heart is shattered learning of her passing. She will never be forgotten.”
