Anyone who was lucky enough to know Zoraida can testify to her good-natured heart and her warm smile. Now she is reunited with all of her family and friends that have passed on and though it is extremely heartbreaking to say goodbye, we should be saying "until we meet again" since we shall be reunited with her again one day when we too are called to eternal life.

The family wishes to extend their sincere gratitude to: the Orange Regional Medical Center staff - especially Dr. Murphy, Donna, Anne, and Maya (hospice care) and Gabriel and Chris of Pastoral Care, Park Manor Rehabilitation and Health Care, Access Supports for Living, and Martinez-Morse Funeral Home. The kindness and compassion shown by these organizations will never be forgotten.
